

BRAVE GENERATION

Conference: Brave Generation '08 Vessels of Honor

Featured Artist: HolyFire

The Ministry: The ministry of HolyFire was birthed out of the desire to provoke this generation to passionately follow Jesus Christ. The ministry travels throughout the U.S. and abroad using music to carry their message. Brave Generation was a creation of HolyFire which seeks to ignite a spiritual awakening of our youth through music, small groups, and training sessions.

Dates: April 25-26, 2008

Location: Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel
181 Boston Post Road West, Marlborough, MA

Accommodations: 4 students, 1 leader per room (all girls/all boys)

Cost: $90 ($20 conference fee, $25 hotel stay, $45 food/snacks estimate)

Session Topics: Vessels of Honor – All across the Northeast, God is capturing the hearts of this young generation with a call to holiness and purity. It's time for us to respond to the call. Brave Generation 2008 – will focus on becoming a person that God can use for His greatest purposes. We will deal with the things that often hold us back, and allow the power of the Holy Spirit to bring transformation. The conference will equip you to live a holy life and practice sexual purity, godly character, and godly values. We'll discuss how to live for Christ when everyone around you is living for the world. In every generation, there are those who are used by God as vessels of honor. Today, His eyes turn to you.
